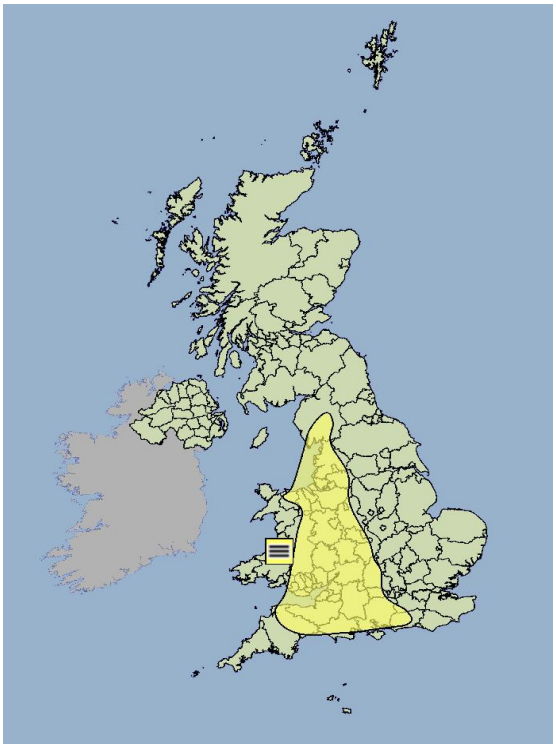
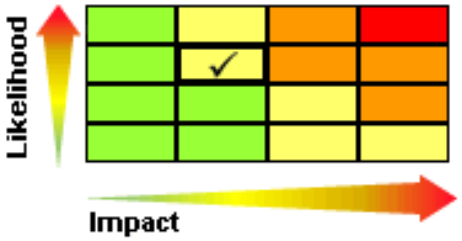
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Fog patches are likely to form during the early part of Wednesday evening, becoming more widespread overnight with the visibility falling below 100 metres in places.

Fog will thin slowly later on Thursday morning, although some patches may persist into the afternoon in the west of the warning area.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Fog

Valid from 19:00 on Wed, 10th Jan 2018 until 11:00 on Thu, 11th Jan 2018

Fog is expected to become increasingly widespread through Wednesday evening and overnight into Thursday.

Slower journey times are possible and there is a chance of delays to flights.
